The Associate in Arts-Transfer (AA-T) degree in Anthropology at Crafton Hills College is designed to meet the needs of students transferring to a California State University who intend to major in anthropology or a related field of study. Students earning this degree will be able to utilize anthropological theories and research methods to make the unfamiliar familiar and make the familiar unfamiliar; apply archeological and anthropological research methods and explain which would be appropriate in this investigation; identify the components of culture and explain their application to the interpersonal and organizational experience of a given case study; and define ethnocentrism and appraise its role in maintaining social solidarity and its impact on tolerance, pluralism and diversity

The following are required for all AA-T and AS-T degrees

1. Complete 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
2. Minimum grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.0 in all CSU-transferrable coursework. (While a minimum of 2.0 is required for admission, some majors may require a higher GPA. Please consult with a counselor for more information.)
3. Completion of a minimum of 19-21 semester units with a "C" or better in all courses required for this major.
4. Certified completion of the California State University General Education-Breadth pattern (CSU GE Breadth) OR the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum-CSU (IGETC-CSU) pattern general education requirements.
