

CRAFTON HILLS COLLEGE HONORS INSTITUTE STEERING COMMITTEE MINUTES

DATE: October 5, 2022

TIME: 11:00

LOCATION: West 215

ATTENDING:

Ryan Bartlett, Debbie Bogh, T.L. Brink, Judy Cannon, Jeff Cervantez, Troy Dial, Cheryl DiBartolo, Farhad Mansourian, Van Muse, Kevin Palkki, Lindsay Weiler, Ambassador: Rachel Kanter

EXCUSED:

Rich Hughes, Janine Ledoux, Jimmy Urbanovich, Gary Williams, Isidro Zepeda

TOPIC	DISCUSSION	FURTHER ACTION
Call Meeting to Order, Presentation of Minutes	Motion to accept: TL; Second, Debbie. Vote in favor with one abstention. Welcome Kevin Palkki, newest member of Honors SC
Ambassador report	- Starting spotlights of students/faculty. Looking at a video format to increase engagement - Planning a Halloween game activity in the Lounge.
UPDATES: - Research Workshops - UCR Honors Day - SCCUR Conference		- Will continue offering 5 research workshops next semester - TL suggested that UCR might include some of their famous faculty (e.g., in psych) at next Honors Day. Judy will give them that feedback
PRIOR BUSINESS:
New/planned Honors classes update CD105 (to be offered SP22) PSYCH 111H or 201H BIOL 100H Additional New Honors Courses ENGL 270H and 271H: British Literature (Ed Ferrari)	- Hold off on PSCYH 201 for now and concentrate on PSYCH 111H	-TL will contact Meridyth about CD 105H - Judy contact Gary about PSYCH 111H and remind Ruth Greyraven about BIO 100H

Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) Honor Society Alpha Gamma Sigma (AGS)	- Crafton one of only a few campuses in HTCC who does not have a chapter of one of these Honors Societies	- Judy talk with Ericka Paddock
Honors Lounge Staffing
NEW/ADDITIONAL BUSINESS:
Diversity/inclusion Recruiting Coursework Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Example of course that includes D/I in the content: Cultural Anthropology. Can we promote that aspect to students?</li> <li>- Target recruiting in classes with high Hispanic and other minority populations (can be identified by research office)</li> <li>- Potential H courses: COMM 174, Communications in a Diverse World ENGL, Chicano Lit</li> <li>- Spotlight students and faculty in underrepresented groups</li> <li>- Recruit more men through the STEM program</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Judy will reach out to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Chloe de los Reyes regarding recruiting students from the Asian Pacific community</li> <li>- Willie Blackmon, new outreach coordinator</li> </ul> </li> <li>- Judy will send out faculty email asking for recommendations for new Honors students and ask for focus on underrepresented groups</li> </ul>
Program Level Outcomes and Student Learning Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Judy told by Gio that we don't need SLOs at this time.</li> <li>- Lindsay noted that MSJC has Honors SLOs, good source if we end up needing them.</li> </ul>	- Invite Gio to next meeting to discuss
Assessment Graduation Alumni Intake Service Learning Honors faculty Course evaluation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Look at the effect of Honors students on overall class performance (Do H students in a class make the class perform better as a whole?)</li> <li>- Recruit faculty input</li> <li>- Qualitative vs. quantitative studies. Consider a focus group of H students/faculty</li> </ul>
Encouraging student research
Additional business:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Alyssa Serrato presenting her research this month at the US Geological Society Conference</li> <li>- Judy speaking about the Honors Institute at the AAUW meeting at the U of R on Nov. 1.</li> <li>- Judy reaching out to more Honors alumni and hearing some great stories.</li> </ul>	- New UCLA TAP report—reaching out to minority populations

Next meeting: November 2, 2022, 11:00 AM, West 215