

Crafton Hills College - Outcomes Assessment Report

Course: LIBR 110

Term: Fall 2010

Date:

1. Learning Outcomes Statement

Students will communicate information effectively to an audience.

2. Means of Assessment (Measurement Method)

Students deliver a short class presentation that demonstrates the student's ability to determine a need for information, locate that information, evaluate and use the information in a legal and ethical manner. Students are scored on a scale of 0-3 where 0 indicates no demonstrated achievement, 1 indicates minimal evidence of achievement, 2 indicates adequate evidence of achievement, and 3 indicates significant evidence of achievement. Students are scored on audience awareness, posture and eye contact, word choice, content, use of time and confidence.

3. Criteria for Success (Benchmark)

None given

4. Summary of Evidence

Nineteen of the 33 students (58%) received credit for acceptable speeches.

5. Use of Results (Implications for Program Improvement & Planning)

When students are interested, they get serious about their project. Next time, strive to make speech interesting by giving homework assignment to research topic.
