Course: ENGL-232

Term: 2010 Spring

1. Learning Outcomes Statement

Students will identify and use with minimal expertise the structural and stylistic elements of fiction, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.

Student employs the structure and style of the genre chosen.

Student uses figurative language and literary devices in an effective and original manner.

Student uses characterization, tone, setting, and point of view to fit the function of the writing.

2. Means of Assessment (Measurement Method)

I evaluated each student's final short story based on the above SLOs.

3. Criteria for Success (Benchmark)

No Benchmark Identified

4. Summary of Evidence

Once again, each story was so different in style, tone, and genre that it was extremely difficult to provide fair assessments.

5. Use of Results (Implications for Program Improvement & Planning)

I still may create a peer review SLO next semester.
