

WHEREAS, Dr. Bill Orr became a tenured professor in 1983 and was one of the initial Professors at Crafton Hills College; and

WHEREAS, he served as the Department Chair of Physical Science and Mathematics for 16 years; and

WHEREAS, he served as a member of the Academic Senate for 19 years and as the President of the Academic Senate on 3 separate occasions; and

WHEREAS, he was instrumental in creating and developing the computer discipline at Crafton Hills College;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Dr. Bill Orr be granted the title and rank of Professor Emeritus and all the rights and privileges associated therein.