

The Academic Senate is following for the vote of no confidence on the chancellor and to provide the email address where you can forward findings, comments, etc.

Please include your name when submitting findings as evidence will be made public and as such cannot be made anonymously.

If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact any one of the CHC Academic Senators listed below.

Steps:

1. Evidence will be gathered using the CHC email: chcademicsenate@gmail.com
2. Evidence will be organized under one of the following categories:
 - a. Leadership and vision (including questionable hiring practices and HR issues)
 - b. Training and informing the board
 - c. Respect for and knowledge of collegial process
 - d. Interference with college process and purview
 - e. Fiscal management
3. The evidence will culminate in a resolution that will be drafted by both campus's senate execs and be forwarded for a first reading and voting by the Academic Senate on March 25.
4. Evidence can still be gathered after the first reading on March 25 but will need to stop and be publicly available at least 72 hours before the April 1 meeting to adhere with the Brown Act.
5. The evidence gathered will also be printed and shared with each board member at the April 9 board meeting.
6. The CHC Academic Senate President will hold an open informational meeting during college hour on March 30th and 31st to share the draft resolution and answer questions for the public.
7. The second reading will happen at the April 1 meeting,
8. The third and final reading and voting on the perfected resolution will happen at a special meeting of the Academic Senate on April 8th.
9. The resolution, if adopted by the Academic Senate will be presented to the board at their April 9 meeting.
10. The last resolved statement in the culminating resolution will direct the board to place this item on the public agenda at their next board meeting on May 14, while classes are still in session as it is crucial we get a strong faculty (and campus) turnout at this board meeting.
