

Crafton Hills College (CHC)

Participation by Student Leaders in Governance Spring 2010

Dear Students,

In the 2008 Accreditation Evaluation Report, the Accrediting Commission's visiting team recommended that "The college should...establish more widespread participation by...students" in the college's governance structures and processes, such as shared-governance committees. To determine our progress on this recommendation, we would like to get your feedback about your participation in governance at the College. Please take approximately ten minutes to answer the following questions. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Matthew Lee, Crafton's accreditation consultant, at 626-797-3372.

- 1. On how many shared-governance, advisory, steering, or planning committees, councils, or other governance groups have you served at any time in the 2009-10 academic year? Include both Crafton Hills College and District groups, but do not include Student Senate committees.
