

Sample SLOs for:

Library Science

Explain the difference between the online library catalog and the online periodical indexes.

Differentiate between the various formats used to retrieve information.

Use the library's online catalog and databases to effectively search for books, reference materials and articles.

Demonstrate how a call number assists in locating the corresponding item in the library using the Library of Congress Classification System.

Use internet resources to effectively search for information and evaluate websites to determine academic merit.

Use different types of information sources in appropriate contexts.

Create a "Works Cited" list for electronic and print resources.

Source: <http://www.lavc.edu/vccc/Outlines/LibSci101.pdf>

Accessed on: 08/13/09

Note: These sample SLOs are provided as a model for the creation of SLOs for your own course or program. If you have questions, or would like assistance in writing SLOs, please contact Dr. Gary Williams, Instructional Assessment Specialist, at (909) 389-3567 or gwilliams@craftonhills.edu.