It is your responsibility to keep your address current with Admissions & Records and the Financial Aid Office at all times.

It is your responsibility to provide the Admissions Office with an official copy of ALL academic transcripts from institutions you previously attended. (You must request copies from each institution and have them sent to the admissions/Records Office.)

Once you have reached your educational goal (AA, AS, or certificate) or attempted 72 degree-applicable units from all institutions. You are no longer eligible to receive financial aid. For further information, a student must enroll in an educational program that leads to a degree or certificate that the student has not previously earned and which requires at least six months study.

You must meet with your Academic Counselor each semester before registration. To keep students on track, the Financial Aid Office requires students to go to the Counseling Office and do an Educational Goal Plan. However, the Financial Aid Office is not responsible for monitoring student's enrollment according to their Educational Goal Plan. Only students exceeding the quantitative SAP requirements will have their enrollment monitored.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

You must complete all application forms thoroughly and accurately and comply with all deadline dates. Misrepresenting information of financial aid applications is a violation of the law and is considered a criminal offense.

You must maintain satisfactory academic progress (at least 2.0 grade point average) in your program of study. You must complete 67% or more of units attempted. You have the right to a copy of Crafton Hills College's Financial Aid Policy. A copy of the policy is available upon request in the Financial Aid Office or on line at the CHC website.

Students who do not meet the units completed standard or the GPA standard will be placed on Financial Aid Warning automatically for the next subsequent semester providing it is determined that it is possible to reach the standard by the end of the subsequent semester.

Students who fail to satisfactorily complete a period of warning will be placed on Unsatisfactory Progress Dismissal. Students are not eligible to receive financial aid (except the BOG Fee Waiver) while on Unsatisfactory Progress Dismissal. In order to be considered for reinstatement, students are required to bring their cum GPA and percentage of units completed up to meet the standards without the receipt of federal financial aid.

You must return all additional documentation, verification, corrections and new information requested by the Financial Aid Office in a timely manner and in compliance with all deadlines. Our priority deadline is June 1, 2011 to be considered for Federal Work Study and Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant. Make sure your file is complete in our office by this date.

You are responsible for reading and understanding all forms that you are asked to sign. It is recommended that you keep copies of all financial aid forms and documents for your records and future reference.
