Research Briefs from the Office of Institutional Research PHIL-105H Spring 2010 GPAs and Past Honor Course Successes

Purpose: The purpose of this brief is to examine the GPA of students who are currently enrolled in the Spring 2010 philosophy honors course (PHIL-105H). GPA was calculated by including all of the work students had completed in the District in Fall 2009 or prior.

Findings: Table 1 illustrates that 51 students had enrolled in PHIL-105H at some point during the semester. Of those, 10 or 20% had a GPA that was 3.25 or higher. Table 2 shows that 21 students were currently enrolled in PHIL-105H and that 7 or 33% had a GPA that was 3.25 or higher. Only one of the PHIL-105H students had successfully completed an Honors course prior to enrolling in PHIL-105H. The student successfully completed SPEECH-100H. None of the students who were currently enrolled in PHIL-105H as of April 19th, 2010 had successfully completed another Honors course prior to their enrollment in PHIL-105H.
