

Student Learning Outcomes

BUSAD 248 – Special Studies in Business Administration

Students will demonstrate the skills necessary to use business principles and procedures to plan, execute, administer, supervise, and/or manage business activities in a real-world business environment.

Students will demonstrate the ability to work effectively in a team-based, collaborative business environment.

Students will demonstrate the ability to identify and describe strategies for setting, maintaining, and meeting business deadlines.

Students will demonstrate the ability to identify and describe the necessary skills, interpersonal and technical, required in the field of business