

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Sing advanced vocal parts
- Identify and explain complex musical forms
- Identify and discuss different musical styles
- Demonstrable solo and ensemble performance
- Demonstrable solo and chamber literature performance
- Demonstrate the aspects contributing to an effective singing voice

Methods of Assessment:

- Performance exam
- Performance critique
- Portfolio
- Written examination
- Student project
- Aural performances and presentations

Use of Results:

- The results will be used in annual SLO assessment and as an aid in course development, staff development, and program review

Rubric:

- 0 Demonstrates no ability to communicate concepts
- 1 Demonstrates some ability to communicate concept, but communication contains errors, is poorly delivered, or is incomplete
- 2 Demonstrates most of the concept, but lacks stylistic perfection
- 3 Perfectly demonstrates concept with stylistic accuracy