3. TITLE 5 CHANGES IN REPEATABILITY

On July 9, 2012, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges approved changes to Title 5 regarding course repeatability. The changes impacted the following Title 5 Sections:

- 55041 (Repeatable Courses),
- 58162 (Intercollegiate Athletics), and
- 58166 (Field Trips).

The new Title 5 language for these sections is now under review by the Department of Finance and is expected to go into effect in Fall 2013. Full text of the changes can be found in the Board of Governors July meeting agenda at this link:

http://extranet.cccco.edu/Portals/1/ExecutiveOffice/Board/2012_agenda/July/Action_Calendar_IN.pdf.

When the changes go into effect, what courses will we be allowed to list as repeatable, and what courses will be given exceptions?

Under new Title 5 regulation §55041, courses that can be marked as repeatable, meaning that any student can attempt and successfully complete the course for credit more than once, will fall into three categories: 1) Courses coded as athletics, including off-season conditioning courses, subject to the limitations on hours per sport per year in Title 5 §58162; 2) Courses that are required to be repeated in order to complete or gain entry into a bachelor's degree program at any CSU or UC campus in any discipline. Note that repetition of the course must be required for the bachelor's degree, not simply allowed; and 3) Courses designed specifically for participation in intercollegiate academic or vocational competitions. The competitions must be sanctioned by an external oversight body, and the objectives or outcomes for successful completion of the course must be directly tied to participation in the competition.

That is the full list regarding repeatable courses. No other exceptions will be allowed.

What are colleges advised to do with courses that were once repeatable but now will not be?

Several options may be available. Curriculum committees will need to examine their college curriculum carefully and work with discipline faculty to make the changes that best suit the students' needs. Two of the most common options that have been suggested are breaking the courses into levels (for example, Swimming 101, formerly repeatable four times, now becomes Swimming 101, Swimming 102, Swimming 103, and Swimming 104, each of which may be taken successfully once by any single student) or into more specific curriculum (for example, Theater Performance 10, formerly repeatable four times, becomes Comedic Theater, Tragic Theater, Modern Theater Supporting Role, Modern Theater Starring Role, etc., each of which can be taken successfully once). Note that in either of these cases, each individual course into which the formerly repeatable course is divided must now have its own Course Outline of Record listing separate course objectives that differ to a reasonable degree from the other variations or levels.
