

President's Board Report January 19, 2012

Welcome Back for Spring 2012!

Newly re-cast monuments at the campus entrances and fluttering banners celebrating the college's 40th Anniversary greeted faculty and staff returning for the January 13 In-Service Day, the traditional start for the new semester. After breakfast, attendees were brought up to date on new employees, construction, the budget, and program review by President Harrison, Interim Vice President Mike Strong, Vice President Rebeccah Warren-Marlatt and Vice President Cheryl Marshall.

It was an information-packed morning: Dean Joe Cabrales discussed Title V changes, Dean Rick Hogrefe the developments in the STEM Grant, and the safety consultants explained the steps in Lockdown Response.

Lunch was followed by a wide variety of workshops : Transfer Center Coordinator Mariana Moreno addressed the Transfer Advocate program, funded by the new Title V grant; Research Assistant Michelle Riggs explained the need for participation on committees; Director of and Management, Karen Chil-Grant Development hosted a grants workshop; and the campus police explained safety through specific steps. Division meetings rounded out a full day.

Division meetings rounded out a full day.

As of this writing, Crafton has enrolled just under 5,000 students for spring 2012, down from both fall and spring 2011, because of the state funding cutbacks.

Message from the President

Welcome back! It is going to be a wonderful, very busy spring semester. See inside for loads of fun events—including the opening of the Transfer Center, Operation Glitter part II, the Art Exhibit and the upcoming improv show, Cooking for Zebras. Thank you for all you do to support student success at Crafton Hills College.

Student Caterer Provides Holiday Luncheon

President Gloria Macias Harrison treated her management team to a very special holiday luncheon catered by Carlos de la Torres of Alchemist Catering in Redlands. Carlos is a CHC Spanish major, who hopes to transfer to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo to major in nutrition. He is shown below with his delicious spread of chicken, asparagus, veggies, pesto, and a unique strawberry shortcake. Prior to attending Crafton, Carlos went to the Culinary School/Kitchen Academy, now Cordon Blue. He and Sous-chef Chris Coon, below with President Harrison, prepared and served the whole meal.

New Extractor Graces Fire Academy

Fire Academy cadets can now keep their heavy-duty gear clean! The "Extractor" industrial strength washing machine has been installed at the Fire Academy.

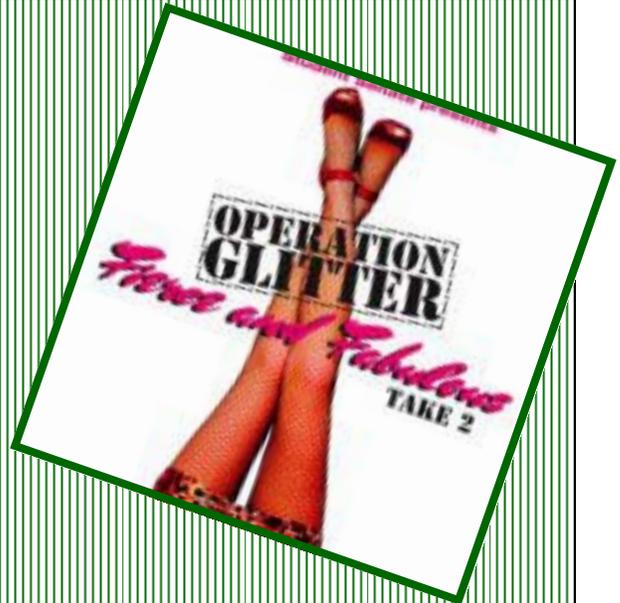

Fire Chief Dan Sullivan said, "This never would have happened without the support of the entire Ramos Family. Again, thank you for your continuous support."

CHC Bookstore Expands Book Rental Program

Textbook rentals continue to be the top choice for students, and the Crafton Hills College Bookstore continues to grow and develop its Textbook Rental programs. A pilot in-house textbook rental program will include five titles this Spring semester, and will continue with the textbook rental/loan partnership with the Santos Manuel / EOPS programs. The Bookstore will also continue its partnership with Chegg.com. The pilot in-house program saves students up to 60% on texts for English 101, Fire 100, EMS 020, Physic 100 and Health 102.

Print Shop Debuts New Process at CHC

Louis Chavira, Printing Services Supervisor, Dennis Winters, Printing Operations Specialist and CHC's own Kristi Simonson, Web Developer, debuted the new Print Shop Pro process at Crafton to a room full of faculty, staff and managers. Kristi created and voiced the training videos for the new process, which will be implemented over the spring semester.

Principals' Breakfast Scheduled for February 2

Crafton Hills College will host 25 local high school principals and superintendents to CHC for breakfast and an update on activities and information the campus thinks the educators will find of interest.

President Harrison and Vice Presidents Rebecca Warren-Marlatt and Cheryl Marshall, as well as Deans Rick Hogrefe and Kirsten Colvey, Director of Research and Planning Keith Wurtz and Glen Kuck, Executive Director of Distributed Education and Technology Services will address a myriad of student success activities.

Topics will include data on current student achievement levels, the SBCCD/K-12 Summer School Pilot Program, CHC Retention and Gateway Activities and a facilitated discussion on how Crafton can improve our students' success and what the high schools need from the college. The event will allow the college to maintain an open dialogue with high schools, hopefully paving the way to improved communication, shared resources, and improved student skills.

Transfer Center Opens!

Where will you go from here?

Transfer Center Coordinator Mariana Moreno has announced the opening ceremony of the Transfer Center and Honors Lounge on February 1 from noon to 1:00 p.m. above the cafeteria in SCC-200 and SCC-201. The Center will officially open for students on January 17. The opening activities will include comments from President Harrison, Coordinator Moreno, Honors Lounge Coordinator Jennifer Floerke and remarks from representatives from local universities. Light refreshments will be served.

CHC Parent Orientations Continue

Started in Fall 2012, Parent Orientations provide both parents and their new CHC students an opportunity to ask questions, tour the campus and become familiar with educational jargon. Two Orientations were held for Spring semester—one in December and the second in January. In the Fall 2013, the Student Services Division hopes to offer a Spanish-language orientation as well. For families that include a first-time college student, the orientation addresses such issues as the respective roles of parents, instructors, counselors, and students' responsibilities, how to establish educational goals and how to access the various resources of the college.
