

Policies and Procedures

A Student may not enroll in two or more sections of the same course during the same term.

A Student may not enroll in two or more courses where the meeting times overlap. (Title 5, section 5007)

Please refer to the Crafton Hills College Catalog for more information.

STUDENT GRIEVANCE POLICY

In accordance with Board Policy 5530, a student may initiate grievance proceedings against a college employee for any of the following reasons:

- Any act or threat of intimidation, harassment, discrimination or physical aggression.
- Any arbitrary action or imposition of sanctions without proper regard to due process as specified in college prodedures.

Every effort shall be made to resolve a student complaint at the lowest level possible. A student must first attempt to resolve the issue directly by contacting the college employee most closely related to the origin of the alleged problem. Students not satisfied with the results of this attempt may then confer with the successive supervisors most closely related to the problem. The supervision succession to follow is generally the faculty chair, coordinator or supervisor, the appropriate dean, and then the appropriate vice president. If the alleged problem is still unresolved, the student may request a formal hearing by submitting a written request to any manager or employee in any area for delivery to the Vice President of Student Services who will assess which manager or vice president is to oversee the grievance process.

STANDARDS OF STUDENT CONDUCT

Creating a proper campus environment is also very important for academic and individual success. The SBCCD Board of Trustees has established district-wide standards of student conduct which will be enforced at all times. These rules of conduct are particularly important in large common areas such as the cafeteria, bookstore, vending areas, campus quads, and other highly frequented areas.

IN THE CLASSROOM

Creating a proper teaching and learning environment is imperative for getting a good education. Everyone at Crafton Hills College is responsible for helping to create this environment, including students. Simple rules of courtesy apply.

 Respect for the Instructor. This includes arriving on time, not leaving early, bringing appropriate materials, not speaking with other students while the instructor or another student is talking, not bringing food or drink into the classroom, not being loud, boisterous, or argumentative.

- with the rights of others to listen and participate, not being disrespectful, not using inappropriate language or harassing others in any way.
- 3. Academic Honesty. Lack of honesty in the classroom is considered a very serious offense. Any form of cheating on tests or assignments, turning in work which is not one's own (i.e., plagiarism), talking during tests, furnishing false information to college personnel, or knowingly misrepresenting oneself to the college is grounds for disciplinary action. The consequences of cheating are severe and may include receiving a grade of "F" for the class or possible expulsion from the college.
- 4. Instructor's Rights. An instructor has the right to remove a student from class at any time he or she considers a student's actions to be interfering with a proper collegiate environment. The instructor may also refer the incident to the Vice President of Student Services for disciplinary action as warranted.
- Student's Rights. All students have a right to due process. If a conflict occurs, the student must first discuss the problem with the instructor. If this does not resolve the problem, the student should follow the procedures detailed in SBCCD Board Policy 5530, Student Grievances.

LAWS TO HELP STUDENTS:

Title IX

Congress passed Title IX of the Educational Amendment in 1972. Sex discrimination is prohibited in federally assisted, education programs. Title IX states: No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participations in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

Title II

Title II of the Education Amendments of 1976 is Federal Legislation regarding Vocational Education. One of the purposes is to help all students receive the job training needed to become financially secure. Part of the law is: To develop and carry out programs of Vocational Education within each state so as to overcome sex discrimination and sex stereotyping in Vocational Education programs and thereby furnish equal educational opportunities in Vocational Education to persons of both sexes.
