How can Starfish help you during this Pandemic?

Progress reports through Starfish are now more crucial than ever. If you need assistance completing them, please watch our tutorial video here, or send an email to starfishfaculty@craftonhills.edu for step by step guidance. We can even complete them together via ZOOM!

Starfish also has automatic flags that can help your students stay engaged. Your students (and you) can be automatically notified when their total grade in Canvas drops below a specific threshold that you choose, or if they don't log in to Canvas after a certain amount of days (again, a number that you choose). To set these up, please send the following information to starfishfaculty@craftonhills.edu:

- ◆ Course number and section number
- ◆ % for the low grade threshold and/or the # of days for the inactivity threshold
