FA18.02 Resolution for Granting the Title and Rank of Professor Emeritus for Robert Crise

Whereas, Professor Crise has taught mathematics at Crafton Hills College since 1986 and for the past 18 years has served as a full-time member of the department, and

Whereas, Professor Crise has been an outstanding professor who has instilled a love for the unique and complex beauty of mathematics in his students, and

Whereas, Professor Crise has shown great dedication to our institution and students, and

Whereas, Professor Crise has been fundamental to the growth of the calculus program at Crafton Hills College, and

Whereas, Professor Crise has been the representative for the student math league competition through AMATYC for Crafton Hills College, and the math league competition through AMATYC has led to the awarding of several scholarships for our mathematics students, and

Whereas, Professor Crise has been an active advisor in the Crafton Hills College Math Club with which he organizes several STEM centered field trips including conferences, and Therefore, be it resolved, that Professor Crise be granted the rank of professor emeritus with all rights and privileges associated therein.