Name of Nominee: George “Butch” Zein

Nominee Department/Area: ASL

Please provide ALL of the following information about the person being nominated.

1. Outstanding service and contributions to the college community.

Butch is one of the most optimistic cheerful part-timers I know. He is also a huge supporter and leader of collaboration within the ASL Discipline. He is eager to help other instructors learn the ropes, or contribute to the development of shared projects, assessments, and other supplemental learning tools. He is wonderful with technology and has been a huge asset to switch to online learning.

2. Outstanding support of student success.

Butch is always looking for ways to enhance student success and is currently becoming Online Certified through our campus process. He is an avid researcher when it comes to best practices as well as student development and understanding and serving our student population.

3. Any additional criteria deemed significant

Butch takes part in ASL conferences and professional development, as well as collaborates with others in the field (around the country), often.
