We appreciate your interest to visit Crafton Hills College in the best interest of students. We know you have many schools and are grateful for your consideration. As you prepare your schedule for the upcoming term, please keep in mind that our Fall term starts mid-August to mid-December. Our Spring term is in session from mid-January to the end of May.

The ideal days and times to meet with students are Monday-Thursday, between 9:00am-4:00pm. Once you have confirmed your schedule, please submit your requests below. We will follow up with a confirmation email with additional information containing a map and a parking permit. At Crafton, wi-fi is always open.

Table Visits

The University Transfer Center will provide a table and two chairs for your use. Please check-in at the University Transfer Center (CCR building, 2nd floor) and we will escort you to a shaded and busy location for student traffic.

Student Appointments

A space is provided for you at the University Transfer Center office for you to meet with students one-on-one. We will provide you with the student transcripts. Your appointments are each 30 minutes in length.

Workshops/Presentations

Please indicate the workshop or presentation topic, audience, time length and technology needed in the additional comments section.

If you have any other request, feel free to contact us at 909-389-3399 or at transfercenter@craftonhills.edu.
