

Crafton Hills College
Academic Senate
By-Laws

Article I: Purpose

The CHC Academic Senate, in accordance with the provisions of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, functions as the body representing the views and needs of the faculty of Crafton Hills College on all academic and professional matters as identified in Title 5, §53200 (c). In order to fulfill its prescribed duties, the Academic Senate, represented by its President or his/her designee, shall appear before and make regular reports to the District Board of Trustees at public meetings and, when appropriate, meet with the Board or its individual members. In addition, the Academic Senate shall serve as the agency that represents the faculty whenever consultation or interaction with the District or the college administration is necessary, excepting matters that fall under the exclusive authority of the faculty bargaining agent.

Article II: Membership

- A. Full-time faculty will be elected to serve as a CHC Academic Senate Senator. All regular and contract faculty members who are assigned to Crafton Hills College for at least fifty percent of their workload shall be eligible to vote for and to serve as a Senator.
- B. Each of the campus divisions will elect up to forty percent of their faculty as representatives: (This needs to be verified for each voting cycle)
 - Career Education and Human Development
 - Math, English, Reading, Instructional Support and Fine Arts
 - Social, Information and Natural Sciences
 - Student Services (For purposes of inclusion, this division in these by-laws, regardless of college organization structure, includes all non-instructional faculty who are not organized under one of the instructional divisions.)
- C. If any of the four divisions do not elect up to forty percent of their faculty as representatives, the vacant seats will become Senator-at-large seats.
- D. Four part-time faculty representatives may be approved by the Senate to serve as an Academic Senator for a two-year term and shall be eligible to vote on all Senate matters. In the event a professional or personal conflict occurs the Senate may approve a Part-time faculty designee to serve in his/her place as member of the Senate for a given semester
- E. Full-time faculty will be elected for two-year terms. In the event a professional or personal conflict occurs the Senate may appoint a Full-time faculty designee from his/her division to serve in his/her place as member of the Senate for a given semester.

- F. Three consecutive absences or five absences in a semester will be treated as a Senator's resignation of his or her seat. The CHC President and/or Vice President shall be notified in advance of an absence.
- G. Seats that become open for any reason (e.g., resignation; reassignment; excessive absences per Article II.G above) will become open Senator-at-large seats to be filled by a majority vote of the Academic Senate.
- H. The roles and responsibilities of each Senator are:
- To prepare for all Senate meetings by carefully reviewing all materials prior to the start of each meeting.
 - To attend all Senate meetings and participate fully in the Senate's deliberations.
 - To maintain regular and effective contact with his/her constituent group.

Article III: Election Procedures

A. Division Senators

1. The Academic Senate will develop and publish an election timeline and distribute a call for senate volunteers to all full-time faculty as delineated in the timeline.
2. If forty percent or fewer faculty from any division express a willingness to serve as Senators, they will automatically become representatives from their division; the Academic Senate Secretary will notify all division members.
3. If there are more than forty percent of the faculty from any division wanting to serve as Senators, the Academic Senate Secretary will then distribute a ballot to the division. Each faculty member will have one vote for each open seat. For example, if there are six open seats, each faculty member will be asked to vote for six seats out of whatever number of faculty are running.

B. Senators at Large

1. In the week following the selection of the division representatives, the Academic Senate President will distribute a call for volunteers for Senators-at-Large as needed for any open division seats.
2. If the number of faculty expressing a willingness to serve as Senators-at-Large is less than or equal to the number of open seats, they will automatically become representatives at large, and the Academic Senate Secretary will notify the campus.

3. If the number of faculty wishing to serve is greater than the number of open seats, the Academic Senate Secretary will distribute a ballot to all faculty to elect the Senators-at-Large. Each faculty member will have one vote for each open seat. For example, if there are six open seats, each faculty member will be asked to vote for six seats out of whatever number of faculty are running.
- C. After all Senators have been elected, they will convene in May at the last Senate meeting of the school year and elect the Senate Officers from among themselves.
- D. Following the first year of the President's term, the Senate shall conduct an election for the position of President-Elect. The Academic Senate Secretary shall be responsible for conducting the election of the President-Elect.

Article IV: Officers

- A. The Senate officers are the President, the Past-President or President-Elect, the Vice President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and the Historian. All full-time faculty members of the Senate are eligible to hold office.
- B. The election of Senate officers shall take place in May, during the initial meeting of the newly elected Senate. Candidates must receive a majority of the votes cast in order to be elected to office. The Past-President shall be responsible for conducting Senate elections.
- C. Officers of the Senate shall serve for two years. Their terms will begin on the day following Commencement.
- D. If an officer cannot complete his/her term for any reason, the Academic Senate shall hold a special election ASAP to fill that position. As necessary, the Senate President may appoint a senator to fulfill the responsibilities of that office until a special election can be held.

Article V: Executive Officers

- A. The Executive Officers shall meet the week before each regularly scheduled Senate meeting to establish the general agenda for each meeting of the full Senate.
- B. Senate members may submit requests to any Academic Senate Executive Officer for items to be placed on the agenda of any regularly scheduled Senate meeting.

Article VI: General Meetings

- A. Meetings shall be called by the Senate President or by 25% of the Senate's members. Days and Times of regular Senate meetings shall be distributed to the whole campus community via the CHC Master Calendar. Senate meetings are open to any member of the community.
 - B. Senators shall recuse themselves from voting or participating in any action item before the Academic Senate in the event of a personal conflict of interest.
 - C. Conduct of Meetings:
 1. A quorum will be defined as 50% of the voting members. Action may not be taken unless there is a quorum.
 2. Any members of the senate shall have the right to place an item on the agenda provided that they submit their request before the Executive Officers meets to create the agenda.
 3. The Secretary shall be responsible for recording minutes of all general Senate meetings.
 4. The College President or Administrative designee shall be invited to report to the Senate at each general meeting.
 5. A representative from the bargaining unit shall be invited to report at 2nd Senate meetings of each month.
 6. Classified Senate and Student Senate Representatives shall be invited to report at the 1st Senate meeting of each month.
 7. General Senate meetings shall generally be conducted according to the most recent edition of Roberts' Rules of Order.
 8. The Senate shall abide by all requirements of the Brown Act including the following mandates:
 - All meetings shall be open to the public.
 - All agendas, minutes and associated meeting documents shall be published in a location which is accessible 24 hours a day for the 72 hours prior to the meeting;
 - All resolutions shall follow the resolution process, with the appropriate resolution form signed by both the mover and seconder;
 - All resolutions shall require two separate readings;
 - No new resolutions shall be entertained from the floor
- Note: The adopted CHC Academic Senate Resolution Process is included as an appendix to these By-laws.
9. The most recent version of the approved AS By-Laws shall be posted on the CHC Academic Senate website
