The REACH Project is dedicated to providing access, advocacy, resources, and support for homeless and at-risk students within the college.

REACH services include:

- Referral social services
- Fast-tracked referral to EOPS, Counseling, Health and Wellness Center, Mental Health Services, and other college services
- Survival kits (toothbrush, toothpaste, first-aid supplies, basic hygiene items, and a list of emergency contacts)
- Financial Aid and Admissions assistance
- Access to a phone and computer
- Referral to the CHC COACH Cupboard for food and hygiene

The federal McKinney-Vento Act defines homeless students as those who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence. They may:

- Share the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or a similar reason
- Be living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, shelters, or awaiting foster care placement
- Have a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings
- Be living in cars, parks, public spaces, abandoned buildings, substandard housing, bus or train stations, or similar settings
