

Institutional Data

Demographics

This dashboard provides an interactive way to explore student demographics at Crafton Hills College (CHC) over the past five years. It helps you understand trends in race/ethnicity, age, and gender of enrolled students.

For methodology or additional context, contact the Office of Institutional Effectiveness, Research, and Planning.

Course Success Rate

This dashboard provides recent districtwide course completion and success rates, disaggregated to highlight equity and support data-informed decision-making. Users can filter by term, college, and instructional area to explore patterns and progress. The data reflect the college's ongoing commitment to equitable student outcomes and institutional transparency.

For methodology or additional context, contact the Office of Institutional Effectiveness, Research, and Planning.

Degree and Certificates

This dashboard displays the number of degrees and certificates awarded districtwide by award type (AA, AAT, AS, AST, Certificate) by academic year. Users can filter by college, program, race/ethnicity, gender, and age to explore trends and support equity-focused program evaluation.

For methodology or additional context, contact the Office of Institutional Effectiveness, Research, and Planning.

Student Learning Outcomes

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) are statements which define what students should be able to do upon the completion of a course or program. Faculty set appropriate learning standards for learning quality, and the evidence gleaned from the process provides us valuable information about the effectiveness of our courses and programs with the goal of improving student learning.

Career and Technical Education (CTE)

Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs are career focused offerings which provide students with hands-on training and practical skills to prepare them for careers in high-demand fields. CTE programs combine classroom learning with real-world experience, preparing individuals for employment and further education in their field.
