Starting Goal

REWRITE: The insitutional wide goal for sections is 50% online and 50% in person/hyrbid

Items to Keep in Mind

Have all three options for students within disciplines and popular/required courses where possible: online, in-person, and hybrid STEM and occupational fields will have higher proportion of in-person and hybrid sections As the survey data comes in, schedule will be adjusted based on feedback from students The unit targets by department and subject are a general guideline based on proportions and prior offerings

Input from Counseling on Short-Term Classes

Late start 8-9 week Math 110, MATH-115, English 101 (for both UC & CSU), COMMST 100 (100 applies to more majors than the other commstd courses).

Look at Golden Four as late start: COMMST-100 (Oral Communication), ENGL-101 (Written Communication), ENGL-102 (Critical Thinking), and MATH-102 (Math/Quant).

For IGETC increase the number of IC (Oral Communication) courses as late start: COMST-100, 111, and 140.

For CSUGE increase the number of A3 (Critical Thinking) courses as late start: COMMST-125, ENGL-102, PHIL-103, and PHIL-110.

Research

Goal: Fall 2023 Goal: Replace 2 full-term sections with two short-term late start sections that are scheduled as pending that can be active later based on demand.

Based on research presented by the OIERP, students in 5 and 8 week classes are more likely to successfully complete a course with a C grade or better. When this information was disaggregated by race, gender, and age, all student groups were more likely to be successful in short-term courses.

For Fall 2023, if it is realistically possible for your course, replace a full-term section with a short-term section. Please follow the guidance from the Faculty Chairs Handbook when scheduling short-term classes: "Five-week and 8 week classes need to be scheduled consecutively, and with a companion so that the room is not empty for the rest of the term. For example, 8-week classes need to be either the first 8 weeks of the semester or the last 8 weeks. All other short term classes must end the last week of the semester (finals week). For the actual start dates please check with the scheduler."
