A Brief Overview

AB-928 – The Student Transfer Reform Act (2021)

- Effort to increase transfer numbers from the California Community College to the CSU and UC.
 - Creation of an Intersegmental Implementation Committee (ICAS).
 - Place all CCC students on a transfer associates degree pathway if a student declares a goal of transfer and the pathway exists.
 - Creation of a singular lower division general education pathway that meets transfer admission to both CSU and UC.

What we currently have at CHC.

- Crafton Hills College General Education Pattern (CHCGE)
 - 19 units total
 - Designed for homegrown degrees
 - Satisfies pre-requisites for programs such as respiratory and radiology
- California State University, General Education Pattern (CSUGE)
 - Designed exclusively for CSU transfer students
 - Most CHC students follow this pattern
- Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC)
 - Designed for both CSU and UC transfer. Usually accepted by private and out-of-state institutions.

Going from 3 GE Patterns to 2.

- CHCGE Pattern – No changes as of now
- Combining CSUGE with IGETC

The CalGETC pathway as proposed by ICAS is as follows:

CalGETC Area	Subject	Courses/Units
