TOPIC	DISCUSSION	FURTHER ACTION
-------	------------	----------------

Approval of IEAOC Minutes, November 5, 2013	Approved as written.	Kim shared the template with the committee members for the possible use in the email that will be sent out campus wide for information and feedback.

Timeline, Update	Rebecca spoke with Jack Pond regarding an extension. He explained that all the site visits fall within the same date range, and that only follow-up visits are in November. Our visit will be scheduled the same time as Valley's visit. Jim Urbanovich was asked to be the editor for the plan. She will meet with him to discuss the task further.
------------------	--	--

ILO and GE Alignment	Keith and Rebecca went to the Academic Senate to present the proposed ILO/GE alignment. Bryan also spoke with Denise Allen and she is interested in maintaining the GE outcomes as course-level outcomes. Bryan also suggested that	The form needs to go back to the Academic Senate for further discussion and approval.

	Rebecca and Denise meet to discuss this form, Rebecca agreed. Ralph suggested Rebecca, Keith and Gary meet with Academic Senate Executive members at their next meeting to discuss the form and then meet again with the Academic Senate.
Discussion, SLO Report from ACCJC	The group discussed the feedback from ACCJC regarding last October's SLO Report. It is clear that the college needs to improve course and program-level assessment.
Keith's Presentation-Changes to Web Tool	Keith presented the proposed method for alignment of course and program-level outcomes with ILOs. Implementation requires that the campus agree on a four or five-point rubric. The contents of the rubric can be faculty-determined. Ralph commented that this tool was helpful.	Keith will meet with Jason and start working on the changes.
Brainstorm Accreditation Humor(replaced "Changes to the Accreditation Webpage")	The group came up with suggestions for weekly email to the college containing completed templates
