	-Members selected one of the categories they wanted to review/edit. They worked in breakout rooms on each category documents. -Suggestion to edit Equity Plan and update Hispanic/Latinx as well as AA/Black Students. -We will meet on October 31st and this will be the last time to get feedback. The plan needs to be given to Academic and Classified Senates by November 9th to allow them to review for the November 16th meeting. Additional Suggestions from Members after returning from breakout rooms: -AA desire to have a community on campus. -Does the Hispanic population in Yucaipa know we have a huge population here at CHC?? If we advertise that and push that, they will feel more at home when they enroll here. -When looking at the demographics at YHS, we see that 30-35% of the students are Hispanic. -Adding timeline for implementation for programs (ex. Umoja, Puente) -Other feeder schools in our area have similar populations and they may not realize that we have higher populations here at CHC. -Recruit faculty/staff from HBCU -Increase advertising Dual Enrollment in middle schools to make them aware -Open house for the whole community and get target groups to participate to let community members know what we offer -2014 there was an event that allowed 8th graders to come in and participate on campus tour (maybe Title V grant, Promise Scholars) Bring up in Ed Master Plan -Targeting parents as well in both English and Spanish -Kinder Caminata where they invited students in kindergarten and parents to come on campus
