Chapter 07: Political Parties

Multiple Choice

1. The Federalists supported a strong central government that would:
   a. oppose the ratification of the Constitution.
   b. encourage the development of commerce and manufacturing.
   c. encourage the development of cottage industries and the farming sector.
   d. support the two-party political system.
   e. encourage the development of the farming sector.

2. _____ is a process in which the popular support for and relative strength of the political parties shift and the parties are reestablished with different coalitions of supporters.
   a. Flipping
   b. Realignment
   c. Dealignment
   d. Tipping
   e. Segregation

3. The party in the electorate consists:
   a. of members who regard themselves as independents.
   b. of all the people who describe themselves as Democrats or Republicans.
   c. only of those members who are electoral candidates.
   d. exclusively of party identifiers.
   e. exclusively of party activists.

4. ________are party members who help to organize and oversee party functions and planning during and between campaigns, and may even become candidates for office.
   a. Party activists
   b. Party identifiers
   c. Party supporters
   d. Lobbyists
   e. Party-line voters

5. Identify a true statement about third parties in American politics.
   a. They enjoy more electoral success than major parties.
   b. Since they are less in number and variety, they are easy to classify.
   c. It is easier for them to campaign statewide than to appeal to voters in a smaller district.
   d. In all states, they need only a few signatures to place their candidates on the ballot.
   e. They have brought many political issues to the public's attention.

6. Which of the following statements is true of state organizations?
   a. The powers and duties of state party organizations remain the same across states.
   b. State party organizations are built around a central committee and a chairperson.
   c. The state chairperson of a state party organization is selected through primaries.
   d. State party organizations are very closely tied to the party's national structure.

Name: _______________________________ Class: _______________________________ Date: ______________

Chapter 07: Political Parties

e. State party organizations are highly centralized.

7. Between elections, candidates depend on active party members to:
   a. organize fund-raisers.
   b. attend party meetings.
   c. conduct door-to-door canvasses.
   d. participate in Web campaigns.
   e. organize speeches and appearances.

8. Which of the following instances of the 1930s was referred to as the New Deal?
   a. George Washington's farewell address that legalized slavery
   b. Franklin D. Roosevelt's programs to fight the Great Depression
   c. The splitting of Jefferson's Republicans into two groups
   d. The new Republican coalition cemented by Ronald Reagan
   e. The support gained by the Whigs from bankers, business owners, and many southern planters

9. Which of the following American political parties picked up the nickname "grand old party?"
   a. The Green Party
   b. The Socialist Party
   c. The Federalist Party
   d. The Democratic Party
   e. The Republican Party

10. The Bull Moose Party is an example of a(n)_________.
    a. ideological party
    b. personality party
    c. conservative party
    d. issue-oriented party
    e. communist party

11. By the mid-1850s, the Whig coalition had fallen apart, and most northern Whigs were absorbed into the new _____, which opposed the extension of slavery into new territories.
    a. People's Party
    b. Republican Party
    c. Democratic Party
    d. Libertarian Party
    e. Socialist Party

12. Beginning with the presidential elections of 2000, the term blue state has been used to describe a state in the United States whose citizens primarily vote for _____.
    a. the Democratic Party
    b. the Republican Party
    c. the Green Party
    d. the Libertarian Party
Chapter 07: Political Parties

e. the American Independent Party

13. In the 1890s, the Populists—the People's Party—advocated _____ as a way of lessening the debts of farmers in the West and South.
   a. farming
   b. inflation
   c. slavery
   d. trading
   e. labor growth

14. The growing detachment of voters from both major political parties is known as _____.
   a. realignment
   b. tipping
   c. dealignment
   d. political polarization
   e. segregation

15. In the context of the second realignment in American history, the Democrats appealed to:
   a. merchants.
   b. small farmers.
   c. bankers.
   d. business owners.
   e. foreign traders.

16. Tipping can happen due to:
   a. balanced number of all types of voters in a state.
   b. absence of independent voters in a state.
   c. changes in education levels and occupations.
   d. increasing polarization of political parties.
   e. changing political identities of voters.

17. The Free Soil Party organized in 1848 to oppose the expansion of slavery into the western territories is an example of a(n) _____.
   a. ideological party
   b. issue-oriented party
   c. personality party
   d. traditional party
   e. splinter party

18. Which of the following statements is true of the national party committee?
   a. It is convened every four years during the summer before the presidential elections.
   b. Each state elects a number of delegates to the national party committee.
   c. A select group of key delegates writes the party platform.
   d. The delegates of the national party committee have the most important job of nominating the party's presidential and vice-presidential candidates.
Chapter 07: Political Parties

e. Members of the national party committee are elected by the local party organizations.

19. In the context of politics, ________ is a system of rewarding the party faithful and workers with government jobs or contracts.
   a. patronage
   b. party membership grant
   c. party-aid
   d. sponsorship
   e. earmarking

20. The structure of each political party's national organization includes four major elements:
   a. the national convention, the national chairperson, the state central committees, and the congressional campaign committees.
   b. state party organizations, the state central committees, the national chairperson, and the national committee.
   c. the national convention, the national committee, the national chairperson, and the congressional campaign committees.
   d. wards, precincts, state central committees, and the national convention.
   e. the presidential candidate, the state party chairpersons, the congressional campaign committees, and the delegates.

21. Which of the following statements demonstrates the belief that compromise with the other party in the legislature is a form of betrayal?
   a. The minority party should not oppose majority-party measures.
   b. The independent voters are likely to increase in number over the years.
   c. The realignment process is often replaced by the dealignment process.
   d. The two-party system should be promoted in the United States.
   e. The minority party should not attempt to improve legislation proposed by the majority.

22. The Populists are also called _____.
   a. the Green Party
   b. the Socialist Party
   c. the Federalist Party
   d. the People's Party
   e. the Republican Party

23. Which of the following statements is true of the procedure of voting for governors in the majority of U.S. states?
   a. It allows more than one candidate to contest from a single party.
   b. It allows the splitting of electoral votes.
   c. It is held at the district level.
   d. It takes place on a statewide, winner-take-all basis.
   e. It makes it easier for third-party candidates to win.

24. The United States has a two-party system which means that:
   a. only two parties nominate candidates to run in general elections.
Chapter 07: Political Parties

b. the two major parties—the Democrats and the Republicans—dominate national politics.

c. candidates must belong to one of the two major parties to run in state elections.

d. all voters identify with either the Democratic Party or the Republican Party.

e. third parties are not allowed to be formed in this country.

25. Beginning with the presidential elections of 2000, the term red state has been used to describe a state in the United States whose citizens primarily vote for _____.

   a. the Democratic Party
   b. the Republican Party
   c. the Green Party
   d. the Libertarian Party
   e. the American Independent Party

26. The Green Party, an issue-oriented party, did not fade into history because:

   a. it was formed by a leader with a strong personality.
   b. it believes in a particular political doctrine.
   c. it became indifferent to some of the minor social issues.
   d. it broadened its scope beyond just a single area of concern.
   e. it partnered with major parties to resolve social issues.

27. In the context of American political parties, the party in government helps to organize the government's agenda by:

   a. coaxing and convincing its own party members in office to vote for its policies.
   b. gaining the financial support of lobbyists.
   c. supporting nonpartisan elections.
   d. electing the delegates to the national party committee.
   e. influencing the national party chairperson to take decisions in its favor.

28. What is most likely to happen when the leader around whom a splinter party is formed steps aside?

   a. The party will be renamed.
   b. The party will face dealignment.
   c. The party will have to change its label.
   d. The party will collapse.
   e. The party will become ineligible for elections.

29. In the context of the structure of American political parties, both major American political parties:

   a. are closely knit or highly organized.
   b. are fragmented and decentralized.
   c. have a central power and a direct chain of command.
   d. are fashioned in such a way that a single individual or group can direct all party members.
   e. are organized in such a way that all party members are at the same level.

30. Which of the following functions of political parties helps simplify voting choices for the electorate?

   a. They act as the major institution through which the executive and legislative branches cooperate with each other.
Chapter 07: Political Parties

b. They volunteer at the polling places.
c. They help citizens learn about important political issues.
d. They inform voters of the shortcomings of the majority party's agenda.
e. They take the larger number of people who want to run for office and narrow the field.

31. One of the most important duties of the national party committee includes:
   a. drafting legislation to be introduced in the next session of Congress.
   b. taking part in nonpartisan elections.
   c. writing the party platform every two years.
   d. planning how to support the party's candidate in the next presidential election.
   e. providing funds for the national convention.

32. After Thomas Jefferson won the presidency and his party won control of Congress, the________never returned to power and became the first American political party to go out of existence.
   a. People's Party
   b. Whigs
   c. Federalists
   d. National Republicans
   e. Bull Moose Party

33. Splinter parties that develop out of a split within a major party are also known as _____.
   a. ideological parties
   b. personality parties
   c. conservative parties
   d. reformed parties
   e. issue-oriented parties

34. The Democratic Party balances the competing interests of its members by:
   a. hiring party members who are held together by a shared set of ideas.
   b. appointing a party president who is given the absolute authority to take important decisions.
   c. involving supporters who prize doctrinal purity.
   d. adopting a view broad enough to encompass the opinions of all the party members.
   e. adopting the view of the majority.

35. Why are third parties referred to as the unsung heroes of American politics?
   a. They eliminate the difference between the major and minor parties.
   b. They help the major parties win elections by splitting their votes.
   c. They have lasted longer than the two major parties.
   d. They provide a major economic benefit to the country.
   e. They bring new issues to the forefront of public debate.

36. Party identifiers are:
   a. the members of a political party who are identified easily by the people.
   b. those people who associate themselves as volunteers of a political party.
Chapter 07: Political Parties

c. the symbols used by a political party to popularize it among the public.
d. those people who identify themselves as being members of a political party.
e. those people who eventually become the candidates for office.

37. The _____ consists of the political party leaders who direct party business during the four years between the national party conventions.
   a. special interest group
   b. national party platform
   c. issue advocacy group
   d. national party committee
   e. political action committee

38. A single-member district:
   a. does not allow independent candidates to contest in state elections.
   b. is where the parliament elects one member from each district to their state legislature.
   c. is represented by multiple elected officials from different parties, according to the proportion of the vote each party receives.
   d. is where voters elect one member from their district to the House of Representatives and to their state legislature.
   e. does not include federal and state legislative districts.

39. Which of the following functions is performed at the national conventions?
   a. Organizing the grassroots foundation of party supporters
   b. Directing the work of the national committee
   c. Writing a party platform
   d. Helping elect party members to Congress
   e. Recruiting new voters

40. After the 2010 elections, many of the new Republican members of Congress were pledged to:
   a. the Tea Party philosophy of liberalism.
   b. the Tea Party's plans of breaking political deadlock in Washington.
   c. the Tea Party's plans of moving the Republican Party toward more liberal positions.
   d. the Tea Party philosophy of no-compromise conservatism.
   e. the Tea Party's plans of reducing the polarization in Congress.

41. The election of 1932 brought Franklin D. Roosevelt to the presidency and the_________back to power at the national level.
   a. Democrats
   b. Republicans
   c. Reform Party
   d. Whigs
   e. Loyalists

42. Which of the following statements is true of nonpartisan elections?
   a. Lobbyists sponsor the major parties.
Chapter 07: Political Parties

b. Candidates need to be endorsed by a political party.
   c. Party identification never appears on the ballot.
   e. More than one candidate from a single party competes in the general elections.

43. Jeffersonian Republicans believed that the nation's welfare would be best served if:
   a. it was ruled by its wealthiest and best-educated citizens.
   b. government policies served farming interests.
   c. the government had more power than the states.
   d. government policies promoted the development of commerce.
   e. the government dominated Congress.

44. Which of the following parties argued against ratification of the Constitution?
   a. The Green Party
   b. The Republican Party
   c. The Anti-Federalist Party
   d. The Federalist Party
   e. The Libertarian Party

45. _____ in his Farewell Address said that the "spirit of party . . . agitates the community with ill-founded jealousies and false alarms, kindles the animosity of one part against another, foments occasionally riot and insurrection."
   a. George Washington
   b. John Adams
   c. Thomas Jefferson
   d. Andrew Jackson
   e. Daniel Webster

46. Which of the following statements is true of American politics?
   a. Americans who are unhappy with the two major political parties cannot participate in American politics.
   b. A key characteristic of recent politics has been the extreme nonpartisanship of party activists and members of Congress.
   c. The rules governing campaign financing hinder the major parties as well as the minor parties.
   d. Minor parties have found it extremely difficult to compete with the major parties for votes.
   e. The rolling realignment after the elections of 1968 has resulted in parties that are much more heterogeneous.

47. Which of the following statements is true of the functions of political parties?
   a. They act as the major institutions through which the executive and legislative branches cooperate with each other.
   b. They help increase the voting choices for the electorate by widening the pool of candidates contesting in the general elections.
   c. They allow the executive and legislative branches of the government to function independently of each other.
   d. They keep the public from interfering in the affairs of the government.
   e. They work together to fashion legislation that serves only their own interests.

48. Which of the following statements is true of the history of American political parties?
Chapter 07: Political Parties

a. Political parties were embraced by America's founding fathers as a necessary element of a functioning democracy.

b. The role of political parties was clearly defined by America's founders.

c. Two major political factions were formed in America even before the Constitution was ratified.

d. Throughout the course of American history, the major political parties have not changed their ideologies.

e. The Democratic Party was the first political party in America.

49. Which of the following statements about political parties is true?

a. The idea of political parties began with John Adams.

b. Political parties are not mentioned in the Constitution.

c. Thomas Jefferson was in favor of putting political party guidelines in the Constitution.

d. The first political parties forms around the policies of Andrew Jackson.

e. Whigs were the first people to form a political party.

50. Which of the following is a result of The Great Depression?

a. Political parties were added to the Constitution.

b. The majority party continued in power.

c. Franklin D. Roosevelt was unable to get re-elected.

d. The belief that the GOP could manage the economy emerged as the dominant paradigm.

e. The minority (opposition) party emerged as the majority party.

51. Which of the following parties was founded by Theodore Roosevelt and served to prevent President Taft’s reelection by splitting the Republican Party?

a. Bull Moose Progressive Party

b. People’s Party

c. American Independent Party

d. Whig Party

e. Green Party

52. Which of the following groups of people, who previously had been overwhelmingly Republican, joined the Democrats in large numbers during Roosevelt’s New Deal?

a. Irish Americans

b. African Americans

c. Catholic Americans

d. Asian Americans

e. Protestant Americans

53. Which of the following factors influences party identification?

a. Race

b. Age

c. Income level

d. Education

e. All of the above
Chapter 07: Political Parties

54. In the 2016 presidential election, Hilary Clinton won Minnesota even though Donald Trump won in almost all of the ____ counties in the state.
   a. border
   b. majority white
   c. rural
   d. urban
   e. majority African American

55. A preliminary election held for the purpose of choosing a party’s final candidate is known as a(n) ____.
   a. election
   b. campaign
   c. coalition
   d. primary
   e. national convention

56. An alliance of individuals or groups with a variety of interests and opinions who join together to support all or part of a political party’s platform is known as a ____.
   a. party
   b. campaign
   c. coalition
   d. primary
   e. national convention

57. _____ is defined as mutual agreement among the members of a particular group.
   a. Solidarity
   b. Bargain
   c. Connectivity
   d. Patronage
   e. Ward

58. A _____ is defined as a list of a political party’s candidates for various offices.
   a. party list
   b. invitation
   c. ward
   d. patron list
   e. party ticket

Essay

59. Discuss why people join political parties and explain the reasons for a person choosing one party over another.

60. In the context of elections since 2010, discuss how Republicans have done much better in midterm elections than in presidential ones.

61. Briefly explain how political parties run their campaigns.
Chapter 07: Political Parties

62. Briefly explain the reasons why the third parties have found it extremely difficult to compete with the major parties for votes.

63. Briefly explain the four major elements of the national party organization.