MUSIC 150X4    Concert Choir 1

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Sing vocal parts
- Identify and explain basic musical forms
- Identify and discuss different musical styles
- Demonstrable ensemble performance
- List the aspects contributing to an effective singing voice

Methods of Assessment:

- Performance exam
- Performance critique
- Portfolio
- Written examination
- Student project
- Aural performances and presentations

Use of Results:

- The results will be used in annual SLO assessment and as an aid in course development, staff development, and program review

Rubric:

-0 Demonstrates no ability to communicate concepts

-1 Demonstrates some ability to communicate concept, but communication contains errors, is poorly delivered, or is incomplete

-2 Demonstrates most of the concept, but lacks stylistic perfection

-3 Perfectly demonstrates concept with stylistic accuracy

Revised 2009.11.01