

MUSIC 190

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Write and compose using multiple modes of Western notation
- Create chord progressions within a key
- Develop melodies
- Set texts using appropriate prosody
- Use and comprehend songwriting terminologies and nomenclatures

Methods of Assessment:

- Portfolio
- Written examination
- Student project
- Oral presentation
- Topical writings

Use of Results:

- The results will be used in annual SLO assessment and as an aid in course development, staff development, and program review

Rubric:

- 0 Demonstrates no ability to communicate concepts
- 1 Demonstrates some ability to communicate concept, but communication contains errors, is poorly delivered, or is incomplete
- 2 Demonstrates most of the concept, but lacks stylistic perfection
- 3 Perfectly demonstrates concept with stylistic accuracy