Approval of Minutes 10/18/13	Approved.
Review results from OIERP in regard to "ideal" time block schedules and college hour as submitted by all Chairs: Dean of IERP	Dean of IERP presented three sample time block options with college hours that were compiled from the information collected from the Chairs. Also distributed to the committee was a "College Hour Fact Sheet" developed in Crafton Council. A discussion followed on how to distribute it and collect information. Crafton Council in coordination with IERP will decide how to distribute and collect the information.	-Crafton Council meets Tues, Nov. 26 th and Kelly Boebinger will attend the meeting to present her idea on college time blocks/college hours. The VP of Instruction and Kelly will report back to the committee. -Crafton Council will make a decision on college hour/time blocks on Dec. 10 th .
GE Program Level Outcomes: Academic Senate: Academic Senate President	The Academic Senate President distributed GE Program Level Outcomes and GE Course Level Student Learning Outcomes.	Chairs were asked to match their course level student learning outcomes with the GE Course level outcomes and provide that information to OIERP. OIERP will develop a Web tool that can be used to submit this information.
Assorted Academic Topics: VP of Instruction	-Scheduling process for Spring slightly behind schedule. -Change of leadership in Math, English/Reading, Basic Skills. These areas will be under the supervision of the VP of Instruction through Dec. 21 st . Learning Communities will be under new supervision. -Brain Trust, and outside organization, is doing a study on the 70/30 split between SBVC and Crafton.

Announcements:	Discussion on the prioritization of faculty hires needs to begin earlier than March. It was suggested that it be done in the Fall.	Bring last year's prioritization to the next meeting.
