

Crafton Hills College Opening Day Workshops and Division Meetings
August 12, 2011

Event	Presenter/Facilitator/Dean	Room
12:45-1:30 p.m. Session I Workshops
Designing Effective Assessments Participants will learn to design effective assessments that measure students learning in their particular courses and disciplines.	Keith Wurtz	LRC 231
Designing Outcomes for Service Areas This workshop is designed for service units, such as Tutoring, the Library and Counseling. Participants will learn to identify meaningful effectiveness indicators for their programs, and to develop appropriate means of assessment.	Rebecca Warren-Marlatt and Jonathan Townsend	LRC 110
SLO's Made Simple: Using the Nichols Model to Close the Assessment Loop The workshop includes peer sharing and collaboration as you develop or refine learning goals and student learning outcomes for one of your own courses.	Gary Williams	LRC 226
1:35-2:20 p.m. Session II Workshops
Authentic Assessment; Some Instructional Examples The college SLO Coordinator and instructional faculty members will dialogue with participants about their own journeys in assessment. Ideas for improving the assessment of teaching and learning will be shared.	Gary Williams	LRC 226
Institutional Learning Outcomes Facilitators will describe a proposed approach to the measurement of Institutional Learning Outcomes that will promote the integration of course, program, and institutional outcomes.	Cheryl Marshall, Keith Wurtz	LRC 231
Student Learning Outcomes: or What Is a Learning Outcome and Why Do We Have to Measure Them? This workshop is for those with little or no familiarity with SLO's. The facilitator will provide a nuts-and-bolts description of learning outcomes, the accreditation requirement that compels them, and some approaches to developing and measuring outcomes.	Rebecca Warren-Marlatt	LRC 110
2:25-3:15 p.m. Division Meetings
Arts and Science	Rick Hogrefe	LRC 231
Career Education/Human Development	June Yamamoto	LRC 110
Math, English, Reading, Learning Resources	Raju Hegde	LRC 226
Student Support	Joe Cabrales	SSA 300
Counseling and Matriculation	Kirsten Colvey	SSB201