Preamble

Main Purposes of the District Strategic Plan

The main purposes of the District Strategic Plan (DSP) are as follows:

- It provides an integrated framework within which the Board, the district, and the colleges can work toward coordinated goals over the long term.
- It facilitates effective pursuit of the mission of the district.
- It promotes efficient use of district and college resources in the long term.
- It helps the district and colleges anticipate challenges and take advantage of opportunities.
- It guides further planning and decision-making at all levels.

The DSP is thus a crucial contributor to the ongoing improvement and continuing success of the district and its colleges.

Background and Process

In twice-monthly meetings since October 2009, the members of the collegial-consultation District Strategic Planning Committee (DSPC) have developed, as required by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, a "formal and regularly evaluated district strategic plan that both acknowledges input [from] and aligns with the colleges['] educational plan[s] and serves as a guide for planning at the college level." In part because of the commission's emphasis on input from and alignment with the colleges' strategic and educational master plans, and on guidance of further college planning, the DSPC has drawn heavily on the content of existing college plans in this initial edition of the DSP. After evaluation of the 2010-14 DSP, the committee refined the DSP further to include integration of KVCR and EDCT, more research, and other features; see Evaluation and Revision of the Plan below. However, members have also reviewed and discussed numerous other sources of information, including the following:

- Board Imperatives and Institutional Goals, 2009-10
- California Community Colleges Strategic Plan
- Statistics on enrollment patterns and on students and their performance
- Subcommittee reports on important strategic issues related to higher education
- The colleges' missions and other foundational statements
- The Accrediting Commission's rubric for evaluating planning
- Information about our service areas from an updated environmental scan

Based on thoughtful consideration and spirited discussion of all the information provided, the DSPC developed and refined a draft set of Strategic Directions and Goals. On March 1, 2010, the chancellor sent the committee's recommended Strategic Directions and Goals to all employees, with a structured request for feedback and for specific ideas on concrete steps the district should take. Respondents had the option of emailing their comments or giving them to their representative on the committee. The DSPC also hosted three open forums—one at each college and one at the district offices—in March to answer questions and receive feedback. Finally, a request was sent to the presidents of the Academic, Classified, and Student Senates of both colleges to gather additional feedback at their next scheduled meetings.

After serious consideration of all feedback received, and much more discussion, the DSPC drafted Objectives for each Goal to fulfill one or more of five main purposes:

- Provide needed district support to both colleges in pursuing and achieving their own goals.
- Coordinate, or place a district umbrella over, analogous sets of goals and objectives that already exist at both colleges.
- Guide further planning at both colleges.
- Establish or enhance a district-level operation to advance a district Goal.
- Fill a gap in the colleges' planning.

To each Objective, the DSPC added a tentative timeline, a responsible point person or group, a set of measures of progress, and a set of suggested actions.

In late April 2010, the chancellor distributed to all employees the full draft of the DSP, with a request once again for feedback in one of four ways: by email, in one of two open forums (one at each college), through members of the committee, and (for employees at the district offices, KVCR, and EDCT) through an open staff meeting. The committee considered all feedback received by the May 5, 2010 deadline at its meeting of May 7, and incorporated changes as appropriate to strengthen the DSP.

The DSPC submitted the final version of the DSP to the chancellor on May 14, 2010.

Evaluation and Revision of the Plan

Schedule

The full evaluation of the 2010-14 District Strategic Plan (DSP) took place in 2010-11, with implementations of any necessary revisions to follow in Fall 2011. In the Fall of 2010, a subcommittee was established to incorporate KVCR and EDCT into the DSP. Subsequent full evaluations of the DSP, followed by implementation of any necessary revisions, will occur triennially beginning in Fall 2014.

Quarterly Monitoring

The DSPC will monitor progress on the DSP on a quarterly basis in consultation with the point persons and groups, and facilitate corrective actions as needed.

Annual Progress Reports

In the spring semester of each year beginning in 2012, each vice chancellor, college president, and executive director will prepare and disseminate a progress report on those district Goals and Objectives applicable to the organization that he or she supervises. College presidents will prepare their progress reports in appropriate consultation with the constituency groups on their respective campuses; vice chancellors and executive directors will prepare their progress reports in appropriate consultation with staff in their respective operations. In each year other than a full-evaluation year, Collegiate Cabinet will review these progress reports, and may recommend that a full evaluation take place earlier than originally scheduled.

Evaluation Responsibility

The original District Strategic Planning Committee (DSPC), members of which were appointed for a two-year term, will conduct the full evaluation of the 2010-14 DSP. For each subsequent triennial cycle, the chancellor will identify and convene a broadly representative body that will function as a successor DSPC, chaired by the chancellor or designee, to conduct the evaluation.

Triennial Evaluation of the DSP

At a minimum, each subsequent triennial full evaluation cycle will consist of the following steps:

- 1. The successor DSPC will review the most recent set of Annual Progress Reports.
- 2. Each person or group responsible for completion of an Objective will submit a status report on that Objective to the successor DSPC.
- 3. The SBVC College Council and the CHC Educational Master Planning Committee will submit to the successor DSPC progress reports on the colleges' respective strategic and educational master plans.
- 4. District and college technology planning groups and facilities planning groups will submit to the successor DSPC progress reports on their respective plans.
- 5. A Research Subcommittee or other group with appropriate expertise will provide updated information on environmental scan results, effectiveness and impact indicators, and other research as needed.
- 6. The successor DSPC will compile and disseminate a Three-Year Status Report on the DSP as a whole, which will include its conclusions on which Objectives and/or Goals of the DSP have been achieved and should therefore be retired, and which should remain in the DSP for further work.
- 7. The successor DSPC will review any changes in the ACCJC Accreditation Standards since the last triennial evaluation, and the resolution status of any outstanding ACCJC recommendations to either college.
- 8. Based on the information available, the successor DSPC will update the district planning assumptions.
- 9. The successor DSPC will determine what additions or modifications to the Strategic Directions, Goals, Objectives, and/or other elements of the DSP are required, and draft a revised DSP accordingly.
- 10. The successor DSPC will solicit feedback on the draft widely, and incorporate that feedback as appropriate.
- 11. The successor DSPC will submit the final revised DSP to the chancellor, who will submit it to the Board for approval.
- 12. Improvements reflected in the revised DSP will be implemented and documented beginning in the following fall semester.
- 13. The Chancellor's Office will ensure that the revised DSP is posted on the district website and otherwise widely disseminated.

Effectiveness and Impact Indicators

ARCC College-Level Indicators

District Strategic Planning Implications Identified by the Committee

The Accountability Reporting for Community Colleges (ARCC) system assigns a peer group to each college using a set of mathematical tools. Each college has a different peer group for each measure, based on factors that affect that measure according to statistical analysis. Thus for each measure, each college can judge its performance relative to that of empirically similar California community colleges. The implications of the ARCC 2010 report for district strategic planning include the following:

- 1. The colleges need to improve student success, progress, and achievement, particularly in basic skills courses and for at-risk students.
- 2. San Bernardino Valley College faces particular challenges in that high school students in the surrounding communities have a high dropout rate, a low California High School Exit Examination (CAHSEE) pass rate, and a low college-going rate.
- 3. The district should consider the following strategies:
 - a. Promote awareness in the community of college as an option.
 - b. Work with K-12 to prepare students better for college-level work.
 - c. Promote partnerships between the colleges and businesses.
 - d. Promote efficient and effective systems and communication district-wide.
 - e. Promote opportunities for resource development.
 - f. Increase articulation agreements between CSU, UC, private colleges, and high schools.

Student Performance, WSCH per Faculty Load, and FTES

District Strategic Planning Implications Identified by the Committee

The DSPC discussed the graphs below in light of additional economic and enrollment management information, and identified the following main implications for district strategic planning:

- 1. Increases in FTES should be monitored to ensure that they have no detrimental effect on the quality of instruction.
- 2. The colleges should continue to share best practices that lead to good retention and success rates.
- 3. San Bernardino Valley College might require additional funding for student support to help move its retention and success rates toward those of Crafton Hills College.
- 4. The colleges will be faced with greater demand for fewer available sections in the next few years.
- 5. The district should balance costs with growth, and make a strong investment in the future.
- 6. The economic downturn, the return of adults to school, and the substantial number of underemployed workers indicate the need for increased emphasis on foundational skills: Critical thinking, writing, and computational.
- 7. The colleges should consider more alternative delivery modes and schedules for programs and services (e.g., a balance of online and face-to-face instruction and services; weekend programs and services).
- 8. The fact that programs with enrollment restrictions (e.g., many tech programs, basic skills) have lower WSCH per Faculty Load should be considered.

Consolidated Report of Strategic Issues: Highlights and Implications Identified by the Committee

Budget, Law & Regulation, Capital Funding

Highlights

- 1. There continues to be an economic slump and large budget shortfalls at the state level.
- 2. Declining property values continue to erode the tax base.
- 3. Health care costs continue to rise by double digits.
- 4. The state budget has resulted in limited state revenue bond resources to match local bond dollars for construction projects.

Implications

- 1. Uncertain fiscal environment and continued inability to serve all who want to take classes under current model.
- 2. Possible state funding shortfall due to inability to backfill property taxes.
- 3. Possibility that district will not be able to implement facilities master plan over ten years, due to inability to sell full value of Measure M bonds, due to declining property values.
- 4. Out-of-pocket health care costs for employees increased and cost-containment is difficult with rising health care premiums, which erode salary dollars.
- 5. We may not receive the leverage of matching state funds for capital projects, requiring faster spending of General Bond, Measure M dollars, with fewer projects completing.

Pedagogical Innovations, Accountability, and Learning Outcomes

Highlights

- 1. Accountability and Assessment
 - a. Continued pressure from WASC, the DOE, and the public for community colleges to demonstrate student learning through assessment and documentation.
 - b. Challenges related to assessment include philosophical differences among practitioners and assuring validity.
- 2. Alternative Modes of Instruction
 - a. Strong student demand for online instruction and short-term classes and programs.
 - b. Availability of technology for instruction (online tools, clickers, smart classrooms, etc.).
- 3. Focus on Clear Pathways
 - a. Public expectation and need for clear pathways from K-12 to ultimate career goal.
- 4. Active, Student-Centered Teaching and Learning
 - a. Continued trend towards, and evidence of the effectiveness of, active learning with student involvement.
- 5. Student Success
 - a. Continued need to help underprepared students succeed in college and gain foundational skills (foundational skills, etc.) for success in further education and employment.

Implications

- 1. Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes will continue to be a "hot topic" in regards to accountability measures. Workloads increase while campuses learn the process and incorporate measurement and continuous improvement as part of their cultures.
- 2. Effective use of technology in the classroom demands frequent upgrades and continuous training for both students and faculty.
- 3. Methods and processes for assuring the quality of online instruction need to be in place.
- 4. Community colleges must partner with K-12, four-year institutions, and employers to develop and maintain clear pathways from education to successful employment. Curriculum needs to be aligned and meaningfully designed to help students succeed in achieving their goals.
- 5. Professional development and support for innovation are both needed for faculty to learn and implement active learning techniques in the classroom. The principles and practices for brain-based learning, learning communities, student engagement, and other best practices need to be shared and implemented.
- 6. Most students enter the colleges underprepared and lack some of the crucial skills for success. Colleges must have accurate placement methods, must integrate foundational skills throughout the curriculum, and continue to align classroom instruction, learning resource centers, and student services.

Educational Attainment in Relation to Economic Opportunity

Highlights

- 1. Statewide, the income of three cohorts of wage-earning community college recipients of a degree or certificate (in 2000-01, 2001-02, and 2002-03) were tracked for four years after their awards; none of these students had transferred to a four-year institution. Their median annual income in the first year after the award jumped 39% in 2001, 52% in 2002, and 44% in 2003. By comparison, the California median household income rose 0.6%, 0.7%, and 3.8% in the corresponding years.
- 2. By the fourth year after the award, their median income had risen cumulatively 24%, 29%, and 26% over the first year after the award, respectively. By comparison, the California median household income rose 4%, 1%, and 1% in the corresponding years.
- 3. The year before their award, the median income of these students was 63%, 58%, and 65% of the corresponding California median household income, respectively. By the fourth year, the median income of all three cohorts exceeded the corresponding California median household income.
- 4. Nationally, the unemployment rate in 2007 for people 25 years old and over who had completed only high school was 47% higher than for people who had received only an associate's degree, and 120% higher than for people who had received a bachelor's or higher degree.
- 5. Nationally, in 2007, the median annual incomes of full-time workers 25 years old and over by highest level of educational attainment were as follows:

	High School	Some College	Difference from HS	Associate's	Difference from HS	Bachelor's	Difference from HS
Males	$37,860	$44,900	19%	$49,040	30%	$62,090	64%
Females	$27,240	$32,840	21%	$36,330	33%	$45,770	68%

Implications

- 1. The economic advantages of obtaining a certificate or degree from a California community college are immediate and long-lasting, even for students who do not go on to a four-year institution. These advantages comprise a major selling point for the district in times when it can accommodate growth.
- 2. Obtaining an AA or AS is insurance against unemployment, another major selling point.
- 3. Full-time workers with some college, but less than a degree (which included certificates), make one-fifth better money than competitors with only a high school diploma. Full-time workers with an AA or AS make one-third better money than competitors with only a high school diploma. Moving on to a BA or BS only improves income prospects, and the effects of educational attainment are greater for females than for males. These statistics comprise yet another major selling point when the district is seeking growth.

Competition for Students

Highlights

- 1. Real competition for students comes not just from other community colleges, but also from "private educational and training providers capitalizing upon a student's willingness to commute"—including four-year universities, vocational schools and colleges, liberal arts colleges, institutes of technology, trade schools, and career colleges, all of which may offer degrees or certificates "indistinguishable to the average consumer of higher education" from those offered by SBCCD.
- 2. The following table shows the numbers of various types of private educational institutions within San Bernardino and Riverside Counties that represent potential competition for SBCCD students for at least some courses and/or programs:

Type of Institution	San Bernardino County	Riverside County
Sports and Recreation Instruction	130	178
Fine Art Schools	98	112
Cosmetology and Barber Schools	44	51
Business and Secretarial Schools	24	24
Computer Training	15	11
Flight Training	14	11
Professional and Management Development Training	13	13
Other Technical and Trade Schools	10	12
Language Schools	3	1
TOTALS	351	413

Source: Info USA, 2010

- 3. Including Los Angeles and Orange County institutions in the mix in these categories adds 4,131 competitors, many of which are well within a 60-minute driving radius.
- 4. In addition to the above mentioned institutions, there are 95 private educational institutions that are categorized as Colleges, University, and Professional Schools (NAICS code 610310).

Type of Institution	San Bernardino County	Riverside County
Colleges, Universities, and Professional Schools (excluding public colleges and universities)	56	39

Source: Info USA, 2010

Implications

In positioning the colleges and EDCT with respect to market competitors, in planning for new programs and courses (which of course are intended to attract students), and in considering alternative configurations of existing programs and courses, the district must consider not just neighboring community colleges, but also proprietary institutions within a reasonable commuting distance.

Private Support for Education, Including Grant Opportunities

Highlights

- 1. Increase opportunities to generate revenue for the colleges and the district.
 - a. Increase number of grants for SBCCD.
 - b. Increase additional external and internal funding opportunities.
 - 1) Private and public support for SBVC and CHC Foundations.
 - 2) Grow partnerships through coordination of employee efforts and the foundation with the community.
 - 3) Create continuing education programs.
 - 4) Consider other income generation activities and nurture existing partnerships.

Implications

- 1. External funding—Grants
 - a. Need for grant coordination under district-wide strategy.
 - b. Centralize management and grant efforts to avoid competition among colleges and district for grants and to inform all units better regarding searches and grant opportunities for the benefit of colleges and the district.
 - c. Explore hiring grant writers on a contingency basis with expertise in different areas (e.g., capital improvement grants, California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office) and federal departments (e.g., DOE, NSF).
 - d. Develop coordination with K-12 and four-year schools for coordinated grant applications.
 - e. Provide incentives for faculty and others to apply for grants (e.g., writing a winning grant with incentives above base salary).
 - f. Increase grant writing training and related professional development.

- g. Develop projects with internal goals and store until grant opportunities are found that match (use program review lists at district and both colleges to inform needs for grant opportunities).
- h. Create a map/template of data accessible for grant applications.
- Work with staff to look for and apply for infrastructure grants and coordinate across the district.
- j. Need rapid response methods for curricula related to emerging grant solutions.
- 2. Internal and External Funding Opportunities
 - a. Outreach to community
 - 1) Increase emphasis on alumni.
 - 2) Continual updating of alumni database.
 - 3) Involve KVCR and community development through integrated marketing.
 - b. Outreach to employees
 - 1) Contributions for short- and long-range estate planning for college benefit.
 - 2) Encourage faculty and staff to participate in community and service organizations representing themselves as well as the district (develop employee guidelines and targeted outreach).
 - 3) Maintain database of employee community and service associations.
 - 4) Offer employee memberships for organizations, which will benefit community development and provide for feedback to colleges.
 - c. Create Continuing Education opportunities
 - 1) Conduct fee-based classes at night on campus.
 - 2) Develop programs for tuition students to earn certificates.
 - 3) Business/finance/entrepreneurship, grant writing training, "green," etc.
 - d. Other income generation ideas
 - 1) Renting facilities.
 - 2) Increase use of Sunroom by inviting community to restaurant-test project.
 - 3) Develop plan for foundation to become self-supporting.

Technology Issues and Trends Related to Education

Highlights

- 1. Funding of IT will be a major challenge over the next several years. Institutions will be exploring ways to reduce costs via streamlining operations and technologies, exploring lower cost and/or free technologies (e.g., using free mail services such as g-mail or live.edu for email rather than paying for Outlook).
- 2. Institutions will work to consolidate and streamline institutional data through Administrative/Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) Systems. Such data will include student information, financial services, facilities, human resources, etc.
- 3. Institutions will need to evaluate and decide upon infrastructure technologies (i.e., traditional servers, virtual servers, cloud-based computing, or a combination thereof). Each set of technologies will present its own opportunities and challenges for data security, cost effectiveness, and disaster recovery/continuity of operations.

- 4. Institutions will continue to explore ways to minimize their technology carbon footprint and find ways to conserve energy.
- 5. Social networking will continue to grow as a major means of communication and interaction in learning environments.
- 6. Security of data is in the top 10 list of every major source reviewed. This is attributed to continual movement towards digital recordkeeping; the emerging body of rules, regulations, and laws, etc.; and the liability that inadequate security presents to an institution.
- 7. Identity and access management will be an increasing challenge to ensure privacy and yet ease of access to multiple systems. "Issues surrounding identity/access management include developing strong vetting, credentialing, and provisioning processes for all constituents (including guests), inventorying and integrating decentralized systems into a centralized strategy, and ensuring federation of identity." (EduCause Review 2009)
- 8. As technology plays an increasingly larger role in teaching and learning, the challenge is to make technology fluid and responsive to faculty instructional needs without impeding the learning process.
- 9. Online learning is projected to continue to grow and learning management systems will be increasingly seen as mission-critical enterprise systems.
- 10. Studies show that online or online-enhanced instruction shows better overall student performance, but studies' results also indicated that there were too many variables to state so conclusively. Much was dependent on instructional strategies, environment, etc.
- 11. The shift from PCs to mobile devices will continue to be a major trend.

Implications

- 1. Money will drive what technology looks like over the next several years.
- 2. If ERPs are pursued, our district will be positioned well to have relatively fast and easy access to data that can improve our decision-making.
- 3. Faculty/students/departments/clubs/etc. will be interacting more and more via social networking and other free-source methods. Our district will need to anticipate and accommodate such changes in our planning, procedures, policies, training, etc.
- 4. Data integrity and security need to stay at the forefront of concerns for our district and should be considered with every technology procurement, and every modification or development of policy, procedure, or plan.
- 5. Communication and collegial consultation are key to navigating the challenges of fiscal cuts yet providing meaningful technology services and access to faculty.
- 6. As new technologies are explored, compatibility with multiple user devices, rather than just traditional computers, needs to be considered.

Financial Aid

Highlights

1. The maximum Federal Pell Grant award for the 2011-2012 Award Year is $5,550, the same as the 2010-2011 Award Year. The maximum Pell eligible EFC is 5273 with a minimum award for a full-time student of $555. These above figures were published by Department of

- Education on February 1st, 2011. However, as Congress continues to debate budget issues, the District is not certain at this time what the Pell Grant availability will be for summer 2011 and the upcoming 2011-2012 academic year.
- 2. The President's FY 2012 Budget Proposal to save money and to maintain Federal Pell Grant Program includes the following key items:
 - a. Eliminate Two-Pells in an Award Year
 - b. Restructures Perkins Loan Program
 - c. No Subsidized Loans for Graduate Students
 - d. Replace TEACH Grant Program
 - e. Debt Conversion Program-moving all current student loans to one ED recognized servicer.
 - f. Income Verification of Pell Grant Applicant will be improved through greater use of information received from the IRS.
- 3. Academic Competitiveness Grant (ACG) and National Science and Mathematics Access to Retain Talent Grant (National SMART Grant) Program have been eliminated effectively with the 2011-2012 academic year. (These two programs do not have authorized funding beyond the current 2010-2011 academic year.)
- 4. California State Budget Reductions Result in Changes to Cal Grant Program Eligibility and Cuts to Cal Grant Awards On March 24, 2011, Governor Jerry Brown signed Senate Bill 70 (the education trailer bill) into law. Senate Bill 70 achieves reductions in state spending by changing Cal Grant eligibility requirements for both students and institutions. These changes will affect new and renewal Cal Grant recipients beginning with the 2011-12 academic year.

Implications

- 1. It is estimated that the elimination of the Two-Pells in an Award Year will affect approximately 23,000 California Community College students who receive a grant, most often for summer school. However, as many colleges are cutting back summer school due to budget, the elimination of the Two-Pells in an Award Year is a better alternative to reducing the Pell Grant amount.
- 2. It is still going to be a major victory for students if the maximum $5,550 Pell grant for the 2011-2012 academic year is maintained. The original long-term spending bill (H.R. 1) which was passed by the House in February called for an $845 cut to the maximum Pell grant, reducing it to $4,705.
- 3. Given the current economic situation and the expected increase in enrollment at most community colleges, it's very important that the Pell Grant program be funded at the maximum $5,550 when most of the nation's young people need financial assistance to attend college.
- 4. With the passing of California Senate Bill 70, The California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) estimates that 12,920 students statewide will be deemed ineligible to renew their Cal Grant awards as a result of these changes. SBCCD Cal Grant recipients will most likely not be impacted greatly by the passing of SB 70 due to the average low Expected Family Contribution (EFC).

Major Planning Assumptions

The following major planning assumptions are based upon an analysis of the Strategic Issues Subcommittee Reports, the performance and impact indicators, the Center of Excellence Environmental Scan reports, and the committee's discussions of all these items (and more) as set forth in the Edited Transcripts of Posted Comments and the Minutes.

- 1. Everything the district does should contribute directly or indirectly to the facilitation of student learning.
- 2. Accrediting agencies, governmental agencies, and the public will continue to exert pressure on community colleges to demonstrate successful student learning through assessment and documentation.
- 3. Student demand for alternative modes and schedules of instruction and services, especially those mediated by technology, will continue to rise.
- 4. Coordination among the segments of education aimed at clearing student pathways through the system will be increasingly necessary.
- 5. Curricular, pedagogical, and service innovations will be necessary to keep up with the increasingly complex needs of students, to attract them to district institutions, and to respond to the changing communities that the district serves.
- 6. Professional development in numerous subjects for all employees will be increasingly crucial to success in serving students.
- 7. The district's budget will continue to be under pressure for at least the next few years, because of uncertainty in California's fiscal environment, rising healthcare and other costs, limitations on state revenue bond resources, the loss of federal stimulus funds, the loss of categorical funds, and other factors.
- 8. Systematic development of alternative sources of revenue will be necessary to provide greater stability in funding district programs and services.
- 9. Demand for community college classes will remain high, and we will not be able to serve all the students who wish to take them.
- 10. Competition for these students will rise, and the district will have to market the low costs and substantial benefits of attending its colleges actively, to avoid ceding the field to competitors.
- 11. Funding for capital projects will remain uncertain, so that some planned projects might not be completed.
- 12. Integrity and security of data will continue to rise in importance.
- 13. Integrating institutional data systems, maintaining and improving technological infrastructure, keeping up with shifts in computing and communication modes, and funding technology will remain challenging for the foreseeable future.

A Brief Introduction to Planning Terminology

The conceptual boundaries among strategic directions, goals, objectives, and actions are often vague: An objective under one initiative might be a goal under another, for example. The following is intended as a rough guide to understanding these terms as used in this District Strategic Plan, not a set of hard-and-fast rules.

Strategic Direction

Definition: An essential line of forward progress along which the institution seeks to move in the long run, and with which it seeks to align its resources and actions, to realize more fully its mission.

Characteristics of a Sound Strategic Direction:

- Establishes the Big Picture, in concert with other strategic directions
- Serves to guide the planning and decision-making of the institution as a whole
- Well-defined subsidiary goals and objectives are required for effective pursuit of each strategic direction.
- Very long-range and stable over time (typically more than five years)

Example: Learning-Centered Institution for Student Access, Retention, and Success

Goal

Definition: A major aspiration that the institution intends to realize under a given strategic direction.

Characteristics of a Sound Goal:

- Reflects the Big Picture
- Clearly serves the interests of the institution as a whole
- Ambitious—even audacious!—yet attainable in principle
- Achievement of the goal represents significant progress in the applicable strategic direction.
- Relatively long-range and stable over time (typically three to five years), until it is achieved
- Shows applicable linkages to other planning structures or documents

Example: Improve student retention, success, and persistence across the district.

Objective

Definition: A concrete, measurable milestone on the way to achieving a goal.

Characteristics of a Sound Objective:

- Relevant and significant with respect to the applicable goal
- Brings the goal down to earth in clear language

- Achievement of the objective represents significant progress toward achievement of that goal.
- Achievement of all the objectives related to a goal does not necessarily mean achievement of that goal; it often represents completion of one phase of work that will continue with the formulation of additional objectives and action plans.
- Achievable in typically one to two years
- Shows the tentative timeline or deadline for completion of the objective
- Shows the specific point person or group with overall responsibility for ensuring that progress on the objective occurs as planned
- May show estimated resources required for achievement
- Specific
- Measurable: Shows measures or sources of data for progress measurements, whether quantitative, qualitative, or both
- Reasonable
 - o Scope
 - o Timeline or Deadline
- Lends itself to formulation of a coherent set of actions

Example: Provide financial and technological support for the improvement of classroom instruction and student support services.

Action

Definition: One of a coherent set of specific steps that must be taken to reach the objective.

Characteristics of a Sound Action:

- Specific
- Reasonable
 - o Scope
 - o Timeline (typically one year or less)
 - Workloads
- Completion of all the actions under an objective typically means achievement of that objective.

Example: Offer teaching and learning symposiums for interested faculty, students, and others.

Long-Range Financial Plan and Forecast

To assist the colleges in planning for long-term resource allocations, Fiscal Services updates the following Long-Range Financial Plan and Forecast annually. It is based in part on the District Resource Allocation Model approved in Spring 2010, and applies only to the General Fund, the primary operating fund of the district and colleges.

Scenarios A and B represent a range of assumptions from conservative to optimistic. The forecast does not account for yearly budget interventions, significant changes in college services, or other District/College changes.

Scenario A illustrates a "conservative" projection of revenues, assessments, and expenditures. Line items resulting from State allocations such as FTES Credit and Noncredit Funding rates, Growth allocations, COLA, PT Faculty, and Lottery Funds are assumed with 0% increases. Other line items such as Interest Income, and Other Campus Revenues are also assumed with 0% increases. This scenario assumes marginal increases in District assessments and college expenditures.

Scenario B illustrates an "optimistic" projection of revenues, assessments, and expenditures. Line items resulting from all allocations including FTES Credit and Noncredit Funding rates, Growth allocations, COLA, PT Faculty, Lottery Funds, Interest Income, and Other Campus Revenues are assumed with varying percent increases based on historical trends. This scenario assumes moderate increases in District assessments and college expenditures.

The figures in both scenarios are for illustrative purposes only.

Characteristics of the District

District Strategic Planning Implications Identified by the Committee

The DSPC discussed student demographics of both colleges in light of the environmental scan information (see page 55), and identified the following main implications for district strategic planning:

- 1. All district planning and resource allocation should be aware of the differences between the colleges in ethnicity, age, socioeconomic status, urban environment, and other factors.
- 2. The colleges should consider the following coordinated efforts:
 - a. Partnering and integration on workforce development issues/programs.
 - b. Integration and coordination of early college awareness.
 - c. Integration of professional development activities.
 - d. Integration and coordination of outreach to growing/diverse populations.
 - e. Resource sharing.
- 3. The colleges should continue to employ multiple delivery methods for programs and services.

EDCT Income and Expenditure

The Economic Development and Corporate Training (EDCT) division generated $11 million in revenues from competitive grants, training (fee-based and customized), and labor market research services during fiscal year 2009-10. The competitive grants awarded to EDCT included one year or multi-year funding. EDCT expended nearly $3.5 million during the fiscal year 2009-10 for providing training and retraining services for displaced, unemployed, and incumbent workers. Since some of the grants were awarded to provide training services for up to three years, over $7 million of the remaining funds from 2009-10 were carried over to 2010-11.

Of the $3.5 million expended during 2009-10, $1.6 million (46%) were spent on salaries and benefits of the staff and the professional experts of the EDCT division. EDCT paid $895,946 (26%) in subcontracts to partnering community colleges and other vendors to either deliver training services on our behalf or for providing supportive services for our operations. EDCT acquired $553,999 (16%) in high technology equipment for offering state-of-the-art hands-on training and another $63,450 (1.8%) was spent to obtain software. EDCT spent $119,793 (3.4%) in instructional and non-instructional supplies and paid $16,799 (0.5%) for maintenance and repairs of equipment and for rentals. Further, EDCT spent $39,896 ($1.1%) for conference travel and personal mileage. A total of only $5,409 (0.15%) was spent for advertisements as the majority of the grants limit paying for marketing and advertisement.

EDCT contributed $145,427 to the general funds of the District as indirect costs from the expended portion of the $3.5 million revenue. Since what EDCT contributes to the general funds is a factor of the expended revenues, it is expected that EDCT will contribute a relatively larger amount to the general funds during the fiscal year 2010 - 11 compared to 2009-10.

Planning Context: Information from the Environmental Scan

(Information in this section was provided by Dr. Matthew Isaac and Evgeniya Lindstrom of the EDCT Center of Excellence.)

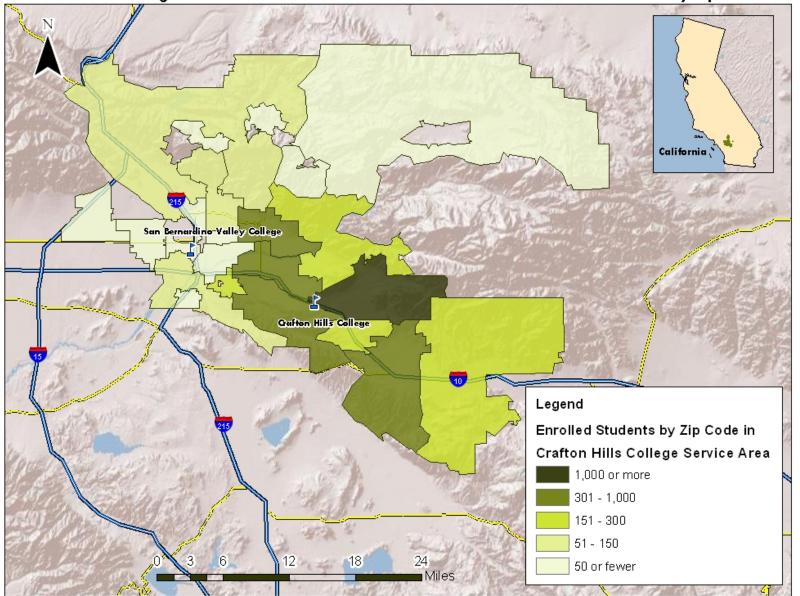

District Strategic Planning Implications Identified by the Committee

The DSPC discussed the environmental scan information below at length, and identified the following main implications for district strategic planning:

- 1. The colleges should develop/enhance programs and services for each age demographic (e.g., 50 and older in the CHC service area, 19 and younger in the SBVC service area).
- 2. Larger household size appears to correspond to lower median age in the service areas, with possible implications for financial aid needs.
- 3. Students disperse all over California from both colleges.
- 4. The colleges should reach out to alumni with degrees, both in the service area and beyond.
- 5. The colleges should consider reaching out to students who have had some college, to help them complete a degree.
- 6. The colleges should support and make more visible the path for vocational students to take general education courses leading to a degree.
- 7. The district needs to investigate and understand why so many students from other districts attend the SBCCD colleges.
- 8. The colleges should match their instructional programs to future job growth projections as well as current demand.
 - a. Focus on occupations that pay sustainable wages—especially those that are in high demand and require less than a bachelor's degree—to "future-proof" the colleges (e.g., construction, professional services, medical records, "green" jobs, utilities).
 - b. Increase resources for high-demand jobs through industry support, alternative scheduling and facilities usage, and other nontraditional means.
 - c. Consider more short-term training, whether for certificates or not for credit, possibly using EDCT to pilot promising programs.
 - d. Align resources with these initiatives.
- 9. To increase student and community awareness of its programs and services, the district needs to build community partnerships (e.g., with GIS firms) and market and advertise.
- 10. The district and both colleges should collaborate in identifying new and emerging areas for curriculum development.
- 11. Support services at the two colleges will continue to be somewhat different due to demographic differences.
- 12. Specific program implications include the following:
 - a. Support Teacher Education/Prep at both colleges.
 - b. Support Health programs at both colleges. Signature programs will draw from across the region, and focus on jobs that pay living wages and offer bridges from entry-level to more advanced occupations.
 - c. Continue Culinary Arts.
 - d. Focus on transfer in business programs.
 - e. Focus on both associate degrees and transfer in technical areas. Consider partnering with EDCT/ATTC in these areas.
 - f. The logistics program at Riverside Community College District is very strong; there is no need for the district to try to duplicate it.
 - g. For administrative assistants, on-the-job training is predominant, so there is little need for a program.
