Create more interview technique workshops for other careers as well.
I enjoy learning about career development. This is the one best way to find work. The process of choosing a career, and improving our skills, talents, values, and advancing along with effective career planning. They are very motivated and inspire individuals to turn their passion and abilities into a successful career and education to the pathway to a long life success.
I liked the way the workshop was paced and presented, and I like that the Career Center does these on a regular basis.
I think this workshop definitely helped me to further develop my career goals
It was a well put workshop. The only thing I can think of would be time. Enough time for the presentation to be shown completely.
Special Thanks to our presenter [name]
Thank you (2)
The instructor was able to hold my attention throughout the presentation. She was very encouraging and willing to adapt to the change of plans that were needed due to the temperature of our initial resource room.
