MORE INFORMATION

If you are a California resident, there are three ways to qualify for a BOG Fee Waiver:

If you or your family are currently receiving TANF/CalWORKS, SSI/SSP, or General Assistance/General Relief, or have certification from the Department of Veterans Affairs showing you are eligible for a dependent fee waiver. We require proof for BOG A – see below.

For TANF/CalWORKS or General Assistance, acceptable documentation also includes a notice of action or the current or last month's check. For SSI/SSP, acceptable documentation also includes an award letter or bank statement showing a deposit from the current or last month.

Is for low income students whose previous income was within qualifying income guidelines. Federal tax returns will be required. For BOG B, we may require you to verify the information provided in Section B of the attached application. Be sure to include yourself in counting the number of members in your household.

You must bring in yours/your parents/RDP 2004 federal tax return. Or if you did not file you must get a 1722 from the IRS by calling 1-800-829-1040 as proof of not required to file. There is a BOG deadline please check with the Financial Aid Office.

If you are a California resident who has completed a 2005-2006 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and your application shows that you have "financial need," you will qualify for a BOG C.

So, grab a pen, fill out this BOG Fee Waiver application, and take it to the Financial Aid Office. Be sure to bring the required documents. Don't forget to sign the form and, if you're a dependent student, don't forget to have your parent(s) sign it, too.

DEADLINES & VERIFICATION

You can submit a BOG Fee Waiver application to the Financial Aid Office at any time during the academic year. However, applications for other types of financial aid have different deadlines, so please plan ahead.

Acceptable documentation for BOG A fee waivers varies depending on the type of benefit you or your family are receiving. Acceptable documentation includes a Federal Agency Certification Form.

If you already paid your fees you must request a refund from the Financial Aid Office by the deadline posted in the class schedule.

Please be aware that if you are approved for the waiver you will still have a small balance with admissions.
