Fall 2017 and Spring 2018 (partial) Starfish Data!

View the whole report by selecting this link.

Keep in mind, the data presented in this report was pulled during spring break (before our progress survey opened), however the data is still very promising. In summary, the amount of sections where instructors are using Starfish are increasing, and the success rates in those courses are positively correlated. Check out the link above for more information.
