Are you tired of students missing assignments?

We have some exciting news!! We have a new automatic flag that notifies students when they are missing 1 or more assignments for a specific period of time. This feature pulls the information from your Canvas gradebook. If you are interested in piloting this new flag with us, please complete the following statement and return to starfishfaculty@craftonhills.edu along with your course name and numbers:

“If (#) of assignments are missing for more than (#) days, a flag will be raised. I want this flag to be turned on (insert date of a Monday).”

Status

None

Late

Missing

Excused

Example: If students are missing 2+ assignments for more than 3 days, a flag will be raised.
